SULLIVAN COUNTY EXECUTIVE ORDER THREE

WHEREAS, a novel coronavirus, which causes the disease COVID-19, has spread through the world and has now been declared a global pandemic by the World Health Organization; and

WHEREAS, on March 12, 2020, Tennessee Governor Bill Lee declared a State of Emergency to deploy additional resources to combat the spread of the virus, and on March 13, 2020, President Donald Trump declared a National Emergency over the coronavirus pandemic; and

WHEREAS, Governor Lee has issued Executive Orders Number 38 and 50, which, among other things, provide instruction for the operation of businesses during the COVID-19 global pandemic; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mayor Richard Venable, pursuant to State of Tennessee Executive Order Number 54, and the laws of the state of Tennessee execute the following and in conjunction with Andrew S. May, MD, Medical Director Sullivan County Regional Health Department:

1. Effective at 12:01 a.m. on September 12, 2020, all businesses, organizations, or venue open to usage by members of the public in Sullivan County, Tennessee shall require the use of face coverings or masks by their employees and members of the public while inside their premises in areas accessible by the public.
NOTE: Cloth face coverings or masks should NOT be worn by children under two or anyone who has trouble breathing, is unconscious, incapacitated, or otherwise unable to remove the mask without assistance.
2. Places of worship are exempt from the requirements of this Order, pursuant to Governor Lee's Executive Orders No. 38 and 50.
3. This Order does not require businesses, organizations, or venues to supply face coverings or masks to members of the public.
4. Use of face coverings or masks shall not be required by members of the public while seated for the purpose of dining in any restaurant or business that provides food and/or drink for on premises consumption or other business as defined by The Tennessee Pledge.
5. Sullivan County, Tennessee continues to be governed in all other aspects by the Executive Orders issued by Governor Lee.
6. This order shall remain in effect until 11:59 p.m. on September 30, 2020, unless otherwise modified or withdrawn by future Orders or by the State of Tennessee.

Issued this 11th day of September 2020.
